

The Quilters of the Nature Coast

Membership Meeting

July 6, 2011

Time: 10:00 am

Officers in attendance: N/A

Members present: 25

Guests Present: 1

Barbara Ogden briefly discussed the state requirements related to starting a Guild, and money requirements.

Current membership is 31, all Charter Members!!!!

The Guild By-Laws were read and discussed with changes made as the membership requested. Terry Ogden, our webmaster, will make the changes and publish them on the website.

Meeting Chaired and suggestions made by Barbara Ogden and Terry Ogden

- Club banner
- Sister quilters i.e. Europe, England via internet, Skype etc.
- Webinars on “You Tube”
- Time and location of next meeting and class, will be posted on the website
- Next meeting at the Spring Hill Library on Spring Hill Dr. 7/29 2-4:30 pm
- First class will be free and held at the West Hernando Library on Blackbird Ave. on July 20th from 1-4 pm
- This will be a beginners’ class, making a sample quilt (couch size). Nina Ridgeway is the instructor. Item list for the class will be sent out via email to all who signed up.
- Sewing classes may take place to make items for our Bazaar.
- Janet Leadbetter will contact Brookridge and secure a table for the October Neighborhood Yard Sale in Brookridge.
- Website Calendar will have all this information and more
- All members approved a $5.00 charge to visitors which will be applied to their membership if they choose to join the guild at the next meeting.

Barbara Ogden will call Quilts on Plum Lane to see if the 20% discount will be applied to all who have signed up to go to Plumb Lane Quilt shop on July 14, Thursday. We are to meet in the Target Parking lot off of Springhill Drive, at 9:00 am.

The following volunteered to be committee chairs:

Janet Leadbetter, Librarian
Doris Trudeau, Historian
Marion Dorman, Refreshments. Discussion regarding themes for refreshments
Sally Cosenza, Membership Committee
Nina Ridgeway, Quilting Academy Coordinator
Marion Weeden, Parliamentarian
Terry Ogden, Webmaster

Meeting broke for lunch and then resumed with the nomination and subsequent election of officers. The results of the election are as follows:

President	Barbara Ogden Unanimous
V. President	Nina Ridgeway
Secretary	Belinda Boncaro
Treasurer	Sandy Godsy

50/50 $45.00 won by Barbara Ogden, who donated it back to the Guild
Fat Quarter Raffle won by Adele Maier, Sally Cosenza and Janet Leadbetter
Door prize won by Marion Weeden

Meeting closed 3:00 pm
Next General Membership Meeting will be July 29th at the Spring Hill Branch Library, 2-4:30 pm