Going forward we would like to present at least 1 quilt a month (maybe 2) and have 5-6 members at each presentation.

Hats off to Bonnie Turner for letting us know about the batting from Quilt to you Wilt , There were 2 bolts of 9 yards and 96 wide . We should get 16-17 quilts from it . We also got 7 tops and 4 bags of material from a lady Joann, that Linda Wade (our speaker from last month)let Nancy know about in New Port Richey that we are using to make 7 quilts now. This will help us get caught up. This was all donated.

Unfinished business: we have arranged to have Marion Weeden's club house on tuesday September 22nd for a sew day for projects for upcoming fundraisers. Please let the board know if you would like to help and what you want to do.
