

The Quilters of the Nature Coast
General meeting July 14th 2016

Meeting start 9:40am Ruth Redeker approved the minutes of the last meeting, was approved by rest of the guild 20 members were present we have a quorum.

Today after meeting we are celebrating our 5th year as the Quilters of the Nature Coast.

Food and award to be given out.

The Sherifs office was very impressed about the kids quilts, Georgine Jurgensen talked about the bags to make also to use for kids and adults who have no suitcases, these will be used to take their personal things with them. She would like each of us to make as many as we can to give them a good supply.

July 19th we had our field trip to Claremont we went to the Quilters annonomous, and the Quilt and Sew shop, we had lunch at the Red Wing Restuarant the was 12 of use we had a good time and great food. Our next trip will be in October.

August 5th Nana's is having her 30% off day 10am -5pm

Sandy and Louise met with Terry to help with the register should be ready for August meeting??

Marion Dorman thanked everyone for the food, and deserts, and for helping to make our 5th anniversary a good time. Then she gave the committee members and board members a small gift of appreciation. Nancy gave members who attend the sew-ins regularly a small gift.

The next challenge quilt will be I October at the Pot Luck Dinner. The theme will be fall or halloween size 18x22 please join in the fun
The Christmas Party is December 8th at the SilverThorn 5:00pm for set up dinner is at 6:00-6:30 we will have Chinese auction, 12 tickets for $5.00 50/50 6 tickets $5.00 ,challenge quilt, homemade ornament exchange and door prize also good time.

Nancy will start taking money for payments toward the payment $25.00 for members $30.00 for guest.

September 13th and 14th we are having our 2 day retreat at Sylvan Grove clubhouse, bring backing and batting for your kids quilts, and we will have classes for projects when we find out who will teach and what .Also if you have ny bennie babbies you don't want we are going to put one with each quilt.

The winners of the Challenge quilt were Georgine Jurgensen 1st place, Nancy Woodworth 2nd place and Jan Radziejewskie took 3rd place hope more of you join in for the October 13th challenge quilt.

Meeting Adjourned 10:15 Your Secretary Sharron Parent