

The Quilters of the Nature Coast
May 11th 2017 General Meeting

9:30am Guest today were Belinda Boncaro and Brenda Bush. And 22 members present.

The minutes from last month were accepted by Ruth Redeker and April Jones 2nd. The items for the Blueberry Festival were checked to see what is needed, we need more childrens stuff. Mildred Hernandez and Cindi Dunn were thanked were thanked for the information about the Blueberry Festival and getting a free booth, except for the fee of $50.00 for the Insurance.

We are going to designate certain Friday's sew-ins for the make and take to restock our items for sale. The Lutheran Church on Spring Hill dr. is having a fall sale in November for $25.00 a space.

Tuesday May 16th is our shopping field trip day to Scratch and Sew and Sweet Darlings in Lutz. We will meet at the new Wallmart's on Barclay and Spring Hill Dr. at 9:15 to leave at 9:30.

QOV Cindy hasn't heard anything for the need of one, information was given out at the Blueberry Festival. Sandy Godsy will be chairing the meetings while Pat McCleary is up north for the summer.

Christmas Party is all set for December 14 2017 at Silverhorn clubhouse, cost will be $25.75 without tip and $30.75 for guest more info to follow.

We need volunteers for friday's make and take and teachers for pojects to make. Sunshine lady Beverly Brown has taken care of cards for birthdays in May, and members who were ill are on recovery, at home flowers were sent to Marion Weeden, Carol Maas is doing well and Bobbie Lemay is home also.

A presentation was made to Ruth Redeker for the Church who gave us all the material in a check for $100.00 as a result of what we sold items that were made with the given material as a jesture of thanks.

Refreshment for June meeting Sharron, Nancy, Lynette, Reba, will bring them.

Motion was made to adjoun the meeting at 11:00 and 2nd by Cindy Dunn

Your Secretary Sharron Parent.