

The Quilters of the Nature Coast

August 10th meeting 2017

started 9:35

One guest was present Linda Christensen was welcome.

Every one got the minutes, they were accepted by Bobbie Lemay. 22 members were present.

The treasurer report was read and accepted by Bobbie Lemay and Cindi Dunn.

The yellow brick road class will be held at Brooksville Library on Friday, and the Sprinhill library.

Marion Dorman loved the meal train Michael is having problems she still needsour support. Field trip to Saltie Needle will be September 26th 2017 meet at Hardies on 19 & 50 at 9:00. September 14th meet at we were to meet with Sylvia from the button factory since the hurricane was it was moved to the month of November meeting.

QOV is having a qov in Hernando county.

Beverly Brown with the Dept of Health, Cindy Dunn asked if we could do quilts for people that are positive with HIV. The board agreed to do quilts hat wewould use some from the yellow brick road pattern. We will present in November. The lables for these quilts will state Quilters of the Nature Coast we care.

In October for the Pot Luck dinner we will do a ½ yard of ugly fabric instead of the fat quarter exchange, please sign up for on the food list.

Volunteers for food at September meeting are April Jones, Beverly Brown, and Lynette Dugherty. Thank you.

Craft Fair on November 4th at the Methodist Church on SpringHill Dr.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35 Beverly Brown and Bobbie Lemay accepted.

Your Secretary of the Nature Coast Sharron Parent